

2011 Minnesota Juvenile Officers Association CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The 2011 Conference Scholarship Application is your opportunity to apply for funding to attend the Minnesota Juvenile Officers Association (MNJOA) annual conference. Below you will find all the information you need to proceed with the scholarship application.

The Minnesota Juvenile Officers Association is dedicated to encouraging active participation in all matter with youth and youth problems, as they pertain to law enforcement. The association cooperates with youth organizations, both governmental and private, in the common interest of improving the welfare of the state's juveniles. To promote increased competence of its members, the Juvenile Officers Association conducts annual training for its members and other juvenile officers, law enforcement officers, educators, and social service personnel concerned with juvenile justice.

Individuals who work with juveniles as part of their employment, who otherwise might not be able to attend the annual conference due to financial constraints are eligible to apply for a scholarship. Awards are based on financial need and are awarded to cover the full conference registration fee. Scholarships do not fund travel, lodging, or food that is not included in the original registration fee. A limited amount of scholarships are available each year.
