Behavioral Threat Assessment for School Officials Training Announcement

MINNESOTA SCHOOL SAFETY CENTER

The Minnesota School Safety Center is hosting a free, 1-day violence prevention behavioral threat assessment and management training for school officials in all six regions of the state.

The Basic Threat Evaluation and Reporting Course (B-TERC) is part of the National Threat Evaluation and Reporting program from the Department of Homeland Security. Participants are equipped with the tools to identify and report warning signs or observable behaviors that may concern others as well as recognize intervention strategies to move individuals off a pathway to violence. This course concludes with implementation strategies for K-12 school communities.

- Cost of training: Free (travel accommodations and food are not provided).
- Training hours will be 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
- Participants only need to attend one course offering.
- Seats are limited.

*Registrations will be accepted until 2 days prior to the event.
There must be 10 participants for the course to occur.
